

Press Release

Christian Mangstl leaves the Supervisory Board of the Scout24 Group

Munich, 29.08.2007 – Christian Mangstl is leaving the committee on 31.08.2007 after two years as a member of the Supervisory Board of Scout24. As a co-founder and former CEO of Scout24, he has in his time on the Supervisory Board watched over the successful development and integration of the Group.

Andreas Kindt, Chairman of the Supervisory Board, extends his thanks for the constructive co-operation: “Christian Mangstl has left a permanent mark on the company, and contributed to establishing Scout24 as a strong player in the online market. We wish him all the best for the future.”

About the Scout24 Group

Scout24 is a group of online marketplaces which offers sector-specific services in seven main areas, and is represented in 10 countries. Scout24 makes it easier for its customers to locate or offer products, services and contacts, thereby saving them time and money. Scout24 thereby improves the transparency of markets. Around 6 million people make use of the services of the Scout24 Group every month. The Internet marketplaces include AutoScout24, ElectronicScout24, FinanceScout24, FriendScout24, ImmobilienScout24, JobScout24 and TravelScout24. Scout24 is part of the Deutsche Telekom Group. Further information about Scout24 can be found at www.scout24.com

Contacts

Press contact Scout24

Scout24 Holding GmbH
Sascha Jungbluth
Rosenheimer Str. 143b
81671 Munich

Tel +49 89 490 267 44
presse@scout24.com