

Press Release

Christoph Hölzlwimmer leaving the Scout24 Group

München, 06.08.2008 – Christoph Hölzlwimmer (40), Vice President Marketing and Member of the Board of Management of the Scout24 Group, is leaving the company to take on new professional challenges. He is leaving his posts at his own request from the end of August 2008.

Hölzlwimmer held various management positions in the Scout24 Group since the beginning of 2000, latterly as Vice President Marketing and Member of the Executive Committee of Scout24 Holding GmbH and as Director of Scout24 GmbH.

Besides managing and further developing the Scout24 brand, as Vice President Marketing Hölzlwimmer was also latterly responsible for the Scout24 Group's Media Sales and Product Development

Dr. Martin Enderle, CEO of Scout24 Holding GmbH: "I wish to thank Christoph Hölzlwimmer most sincerely for his commitment as well as the excellent und trusting collaboration. He made a major contribution to the growth and success of the Scout24 Group."

About the Scout24 Group

Scout24 is a group of online market-places providing sector-specific services from seven topic areas and operating in ten countries. Scout24 makes it easier for its customers to find or offer products, services and contacts, saving them time and money. In this way Scout24 improves the transparency of markets. Some 6 million people a month use the services provided by the Scout24 Group, which include the Internet market-places AutoScout24, ElectronicScout24, FinanceScout24, FriendScout24, ImmobilienScout24, JobScout24, and TravelScout24. Scout24 is part of Deutsche Telekom.

For more information on Scout24 go to www.scout24.com

Contact Person:

Katja Tschoepe
Rosenheimer Str. 143b
81671 München

Tel +49 89 490 267 320
presse@scout24.com