

Dr Claudia Viehweger
Chief People & Sustainability
Officer (CPSO)

Year of birth: 1974
Nationality: German

Dr Claudia Viehweger has been Chief People & Sustainability Officer (CPSO) of Scout24 since June 2021 and is thus responsible for the Group's entire human resources activities as well as the topics of Sustainability, Diversity & Inclusion and Central Administration & Facility Management. Viehweger, who holds a doctorate in law, started her career as a specialist in employment law at Raue LLP in Berlin before joining Axel Springer SE as an in-house lawyer in 2011. Further positions at Axel Springer followed, including Head of Human Resources at the WELT editorial office. Most recently, Viehweger was Chief Human Resources Officer at Axel Springer National Media & Tech, where she was responsible for the HR topics of Axel Springer's digital brands. Viehweger also held the position of Vice President People & Culture at Axel Springer for the entire "News Media National" segment.

Dr Claudia Viehweger is a member of Scout24's Executive Leadership Team.