

Ralf Weitz Chief Executive Officer

Year of birth: 1977
Nationality: German

Ralf Weitz has been Chief Executive Officer of Scout24 SE since March 2025. He is responsible for managing the entire operational business.

Ralf Weitz had previously been Chief Product & Technology Officer of the Scout24 Group since January 2023, with responsibility for the Group's product, marketing, tech and data organization under one roof. From December 2018 until end of 2022, he was Chief Commercial Officer of the Scout24 Group, with responsibility for all sales activities of the Scout24 marketplaces. Ralf Weitz has been with Scout24 for over ten years in various management positions. Since February 2018, he has also been Managing Director of ImmoScout24.

With a degree in economics, he played a key role in building up the Scout24 Consumer Services business segment, which has become an important growth driver for the Group under his leadership. After studying economics in Berlin, Ralf Weitz worked in consulting in an international environment, among other things.